JUDSON HARMON, OF OHIO, FOR PRESIDENT

THE PUBLIC CHRISTMAS TREE.

We are delighted to see the good ladies of our city undertake the task of again having a Christmas Tree for the poor children who might otherwise be forgotten by Santa Claus.

This custom has been in vogue here for the past several years, and many a little heart has been made glad. Charity is the noblest of all the virtues and the movement is fostered and made possible by liberal citizens and benevolent organizations. If you want to see a sight that will give your heart a thrill it seldom experiences, be in the neighborhood of the old Farmers Bank building, where the tree will be located this year, next Saturday morning about ten o'clock and watch the happy children come away.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING.

Ever since the call for a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee for next Thursday appeared, much has been said by the Democratic papers of the State as to the best method of making these nominations. Some of them take the position that nothing but a primary will do, while others are equally as strenuous in their defense of a convention. The more we think about it, the more firmly our opinion becomes, that either method, if honestly conducted, will suffice.

MR. C. H. BRYAN.

The death of Mr. C. H. Bryan removed from our midst one of our oldest business men and most exemplary citizens.

Being a scholarly gentleman of firm convictions, scrupulously honest and public spirited, no man possessed the confidence or esteem of the entire community to a greater degree than he.

Our city and county are better by having enjoyed his presence so long and his death is an irreparable public loss.

It is now too late for us to advise our readers to shop early, but the tardy ones can at least show their wisdom by doing it today.

The farmers of Jefferson county have pooled their onion crop and it promises to be a strong one, in more ways than one.

The Willson-Bruner feud has broken out afresh.

Wilson-Nichol.

Jas Wilson and Miss Mary Nichol, young people from Spencer, were married at the residence of and by E. E. Dawson last Wednesday.

No Delivery on Xmas Day.

As Christmas Day comes on Sunday the city carriers will make no delivery. The carriers window will be open from 10 a. m. until 1 p. m.

Registrars for Montgomery.

The following have been appointed by the State Registrar as Registrars of Montgomery county: G. B. Senff, Mt. Sterling; T. J. Douglas, Levee; Robert Mason, Grassy Lick; Chas. Highland, Judy; J. H. Turley, Sideview; J. F. Horton, Spencer; Mrs. Josie Shultz, Jeffersonville; Robert Montjoy, Howard's Mill.

All deaths and births will be reported to the above registrars who will make the necessary records which will be forwarded to Frankfort for the use of the State Board of Vital Statistics. This is a great work and will enable the State authorities to intelligently cope with the many diseases that scourge our country, as well as aid us in many other ways.

Exchange.

The ladies of the Somerset church will have an exchange at the store of Roberts & Mastin on Friday, Dec. 23, 1910.

Manager Wilkerson begs to Announce the Dramatic Sensation of the Generation

Henry W. Savage's
Soul Stirring Niagara of Mother Love

HENRY W. SAVAGE

Go where you will, stoop to what depths of degradation you can, you can never shut my heart, my arms from you. As long as I live, you shall have one sincere friend.

This is the great truth told in this wonderful dramatic story of the love of mother for her son, and the son for his mother.
